LOVE & OTHER STORIES

Saturday, May 1, 2021 to Saturday, May 29, 2021

Our third group show of 2021 is focusing a more delicate subject: the love theme.

Although we have our own views on the general concept of love, we still cannot grasp its dimensions fully. While love is widely being considered a feeling coming from the heart, science considers neurological, chemical and psychological processes to be involved here. This controversy between ratio and emotion is a widely overlooked topic in popular portrayal and perceptions of love.

Six gallery artists are taking on the challenge of exploring this subject from an artistic point of view.
